February in Review

March 9, 2015

After all of the cold and icy weather, we are ready for spring! With the promise of sunshine and warmer days, we are excited to announce something truly special for this month's Fourth Friday Forum - a workshop that has something for everyone!

Join us on Friday, March 27th at the TCC Opportunity Center to hear from Dana Harper and Wesley Young, two of our community's dynamic, young librarians who have each built amazing literacy programs in their respective libraries.

"What's on Your Plate? Finding the Right Main Course and Side Resources to Bolster Any Adult Literacy Program" will be served up to all who attend this month's training event. Whether you are starting a new adult literacy program or looking to enhance your existing program, make plans to join us. Learn how to select and train volunteers, work with staff, find valuable resources for your program, and much more! These two young professionals will help you navigate through a buffet of literacy options!

AND - as if that's not enough, one lucky participant will win a gift card from the Cracker Barrel Restaurant!!

What: March Fourth Friday Forum

When: Friday, March 27, 9:00 am - 11:30 am

Where: TCC Opportunity Center, 5901 Fitzhugh, Fort Worth 76119

Why: To get great new ideas for your program and network with other literacy partners

Reserve your spot today! \*\*\*Click here to sign up\*\*\*

About Our Presenters

Dana Harper is the Adult Services Librarian and Volunteer Coordinator at the Watauga Public Library. She has served in this capacity for almost 2 years. Previously, she was a librarian at the Dallas Museum of Art. She has a Master's degree in Library Science and a Master's degree in Art History.

Wes Young is the Literacy Coordinator for Arlington Public Library. He has worked in multiple capacities in his almost five years with APL and has been in adult literacy since June. He is currently working towards a Master's degree in Library Science at the University of North Texas.
